2. CORE COMPETENCY ANALYSIS

2.1 Content Strategy & Production Excellence

Netflix:

- ✓ Strengths: Market-leading original content production ($17B annual budget), global content strategy, data-driven content creation, diverse genre coverage
- ✗ Weaknesses: Rising content costs, increasing competition for talent, frequent content removal, subscription price increases
- Content Quality Score: 9.1/10

Disney+:

- ✓ Strengths: Unmatched IP portfolio (Marvel, Star Wars, Pixar), family-friendly focus, theatrical release strategy, brand loyalty

- ✗ Weaknesses: Limited adult content, smaller overall library, narrow demographic appeal, regional content gaps
- Content Quality Score: 8.7/10

Amazon Prime Video:

- ✓ Strengths: Massive content budget, sports programming, integration with Prime ecosystem, diverse content acquisition
- ✗ Weaknesses: Inconsistent UI/UX, additional rental fees for premium content, complex navigation, mixed content quality
- Content Quality Score: 8.2/10

HBO Max:

- ✓ Strengths: Premium content quality, day-and-date theatrical releases, strong adult programming, Warner Bros. library access
- ✗ Weaknesses: Higher pricing, limited international availability, corporate restructuring uncertainty, smaller content volume
- Content Quality Score: 8.9/10

Apple TV+:

- ✓ Strengths: High production values, award-winning originals, competitive pricing, no advertisements, quality focus
- ✗ Weaknesses: Extremely limited content library, lack of licensed content, narrow appeal, slow content rollout
- Content Quality Score: 8.5/10

Hulu:

- ✓ Strengths: Next-day TV content, live TV integration, strong current programming, competitive pricing options
- ✗ Weaknesses: US-only availability, limited original content budget, advertisement-heavy lower tiers, complex pricing structure
- Content Quality Score: 7.8/10
